

Guide Dogs for the Blind

Puppy 102 Review Chart

REVIEW	DISCUSSION	HANDS ON	HOMEWORK
Introduction document sent one week before course			Puppy Raising R+ Training Philosophy FAQ on Using a Marker Food Reward Games Rewarding Calm Behavior Smart Use of Reinforcement for Calm/Settled Behavior (Ruff Notes) Order of Training – Ref Guide Introducing the Gentle Leader Video – Introducing the Gentle Leader
1 What is a jackpot? Describe how to introduce Doggy Zen to a baby pup 2 x method if the puppy is rough taking food?	Order of Training – refer to it often but each pup is different Importance of gentle taking of food. How puppies learn with food rewards/markings etc. When we don't want the puppy to be excited about food rewards (calm behavior) Secondary reinforcers How to intro equipment positively	Demo and practice food delivery – different types of puppy accepting food While listening to discussion practice rewards for calm behavior Demo and practice verbal and physical praise Demo jacket intro Demo targeting GL and practice	Ground Tether Part 1: Intro Video Ground Tether Part 1 Ground Tether Part 2 Videos Ground Tether Impulse Control Greeting Manners Hand Tether Hand Tether in Motion Nail Trimming Video Nail Trimming
2 How would you know the pup is ready to progress from ground tether to hand tether? How often should you trim a 10 week old puppy's nails? An 8 month old puppy? Name three things the puppy must be accustomed to before trimming the pup's nails	Why we do tethering exercises. Ground tether only used initially Hand tether around distractions even later in raising What is impulse control Importance of visitors/other people's behavior when teaching greeting	Demo and practice ground tether and hand tether with pups at different stages. Make sure everyone practices nail trimming (covered only briefly in 101)	Puppy Body Handling Vids Part 1 & 2 Food Induced Recall Vids Part 1 & 2 Relieving and Housebreaking Ruff Notes Relieving Review

3 When working on the recall what is the very first thing the handler should do when the puppy turns toward the handler? Do we mark the behavior when working on the recall? Mark behavior when teaching relieving?	Discuss relieving and housebreaking Discuss recall dos and don'ts In the yard etc when pup is free Talk about puppy handling, keeping puppy calm, appropriate use of food rewards. Two handlers may be useful	Demo and practice puppy handling (quick review focused on introducing to baby puppies as covered in 101) Before practicing recalls with puppies demo and practice handling a long line with no dog. Backing up/what to do if pup goes by handler Practice with different age pups	Collar Cues doc and vids Loose Leash Walking Guidelines doc and vid Toy Policy (quick review; covered in 101) Food Containing Toys doc Exercise and Play doc Teaching Good House Behavior doc Teaching Settled Behavior in the Home Crate Introduction Game Ruff Notes Crating Issues Ruff Notes Settling Behavior
4 Name 3 toys that can be left with puppies when they are alone What situations may a food-containing toy be used? What are some of the reasons a puppy may be avoidant/uncomfortable with the crate as it gets older? 3 behaviors that indicate a relaxed puppy (to be rewarded for calm behavior)	Toys for baby puppies. Demonstrate appropriate play/tug game. Discuss time out in crate for over-arousal What may create "keep away" with toys Demo introduction to crate and discuss first nights in raiser home	Demo collar cues and practice Review food delivery/leash handling stationary with dogs Remind how LLW begins with Hand Tether One step LLW as with intro to baby puppies Increase number of steps	Pezzing and Luring (quick review as covered in 101) Fading the Lure Ruff Notes Signals for Stand, Sit and Down doc and vids (review covered in 101) Go to Bed doc and vid Someone's at the Door – Ruff Notes Preventing Destructive Behavior Preventing Counter Surfing and Scavenging
5 Name three methods to prevent a puppy from becoming inappropriate with visitors to the home What should the raiser do in the moment if the puppy attempts to scavenge in the home? (call, verbal interrupt, dragline)	Discuss setting puppies up for success in the home and remind of types of confinement (covered in 101) Remind about Emergency Lure and when is appropriate (covered in 101) Discuss the difference between pezzing/luring and marking/clean handling – when to do each Remind about rewarding calmness - different from any of above	Demo and practice pezzing and luring. With a trained puppy, practice a signal/lure then no lure (fading) on a known exercise Practice hand signals, no puppies, pair up, critique. Why important to be consistent Practice Go to Bed	Paw Pad Game #1 doc and vids Paw Pad Game #2 doc and vids Dropped Food Games 1-3 Puppy Socialization doc Puppy Socialization During Covid 19 (good tips even after Covid) – Ruff Notes Ruff Notes Socialization at Home Edition Chart: Steps to a Well Socialized Puppy

6 What should first visits to stores look like for new puppies? What is a good method for getting a puppy comfortable on a novel surface? What age should a puppy be introduced to public transportation?	Review and discuss the document Puppy Socialization in depth	Demo and practice Paw Pad Games 1 and 2 and Dropped Food Games	Introducing Foundation Position Sit doc and vid Luring with Prompts on the Paw Pad vid Paw Pad Game #3 doc and vid Dog to Dog Interaction (quick review, covered in 101) Fear of Dogs and Dog Distraction – Ruff Notes Food Rewards for Countering Distractions – doc and vid
7 Three behaviors that may indicate dog distraction? What are a couple of things the raiser can try for a puppy that is worried about barking dogs? What are two things that may help if the puppy is so distracted it cannot focus on/respond to the handler? Ideal reaction upon seeing other dogs on the street?	3 Ds as apply to dog distraction Importance of controlling interactions with other dogs Introducing new puppies to other dogs appropriately Appropriate play in home, in yard	Demo and practice how to introduce sit position (off pad) then on pad Demo and practice Paw Pad Game #3	Introducing Foundation Position Down doc and vids Luring with Prompts on the Paw Pad vid Paw Pad Game #4 doc and vids Puppies with Sensitive Temperaments doc Building a Confident Pup with R+ Canine Body Language: Subtle Signs of Fear and Anxiety – chart Fearful Behavior webinar
8 How might you handle a more sensitive puppy differently at club meetings? 3 Behaviors that indicate fear in a puppy Describe counter conditioning	Discuss fearful body language, importance of observations and reporting to leader/early intervention to help less confident puppies	Demo and practice introducing down off paw pad then on Demo and practice Paw Pad Game #4	See document Additional Self-Study for New Raisers